Article I: NAME

Section 1. This organization shall be known as Amalgamated Local 2262, International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW).

Section 2. Wherever the term "Local" Union is used in these Bylaws, it shall be deemed to mean "Amalgamated" Local Union.

Article II: CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

Section 1. The Constitution of this Local Union shall be the Constitution of the International Union, UAW, and these Bylaws shall be in all respects subordinate to said UAW Constitution and all applications and interpretations thereof.

Article III: FISCAL YEAR

Section 1. The fiscal year of this Local Union shall begin on January 1 and end on December 31.

Article IV: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The Local Union shall be composed of workers eligible for membership in the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW), over whom the Local Union has jurisdiction.

Section 2.

(a) Each member in good standing of this Local Union has the right to nominate and vote, express opinions on all subjects before the Local Union, to attend all Local membership meetings and express views, arguments and opinions on all matters and business, including candidates for office, properly before the meeting; to meet and assemble freely with other members and generally, to participate in the activities of the Local Union in a responsible manner consistent with good conscience in order to present and discuss factually and honestly the issues and personalities upon which the membership must base its decisions. These rights shall at all times be subject to the rules of procedure governing meetings and other uniform rules and regulations contained in the UAW Constitution, Bylaws and other official rules of the Local Union.

(b) A member, in exercising the foregoing rights and privileges, shall not take any irresponsible action which would tend to jeopardize or destroy, or be detrimental to, either the Local or International Union as organizations, or their free democratic heritage, or which would interfere with the performance by this Local Union or the International Union of its legal or contractual obligations as a collective bargaining agent, or interfere with the legal or contractual obligations of this Local Union as an affiliate of the International Union.

(c) Violations or abuse of these rights and privileges of membership, or engaging in conduct prohibited by this section, shall be considered conduct unbecoming a union member.

Section 3. Once the membership of this Local Union has voted to take any action, in vote passed by the majority of those present at a properly called and conducted Local membership meeting, any member who intentionally defies or ignores the mandate of the membership shall be subject to charges of "conduct unbecoming a Union member." All members have their legal right to dissent or disagree with the action of the membership, but they must abide by the requirements and procedures as set forth in these Bylaws and the Constitution of the International Union, UAW.

Section 4. The membership shall strive to obtain the objectives set forth in the UAW Constitution and any additional objectives as established as the policy of the International Union; to maintain free relations with other organizations; to do all in its power to strengthen and promote the labor movement; to cooperate with Regional Board Members, the International Representatives and help promote organizational activities.

Article V: MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Section 1. Local Union regular membership meetings will be in accordance with Article 37, Section 4 of the UAW Constitution. They will be held on the second Sunday of each month at 10:00 a.m. whenever possible. Membership meetings for the months of June, July, August and December can be cancelled by membership action. The June membership meeting immediately following the triennial Local and Unit elections shall not be canceled by membership action so that new Officer instillation can take place at the June meeting.

Section 2.

(a) Any other special or general meeting shall be called whenever it is deemed necessary by the President or by a majority of the Executive Board or upon petition of thirty-seven and one-half percent (37½%) of the Local members in good standing. Petitioned meeting shall be held within twelve (12) days.

(b) At special Local membership meetings, no business shall be transacted except that business for which the meeting was specifically called.

Section 3. Notice of general or special Local meetings shall be posted on the plant bulletin boards at least three (3) working days prior to such meetings.

Section 4. In the event the above Section 3 cannot be adhered to due to an emergency or other special situations, it shall be the duty of the Executive Board to notify the members involved in such a manner as to give them an opportunity to attend such meeting.

Section 5. Any member who attends a Local meeting in an intoxicated condition and/or creates a disturbance, or becomes unruly shall lose voice and his right to vote at said meeting. When necessary to maintain order, the member may be evicted from the meeting by order of the Chairman subject to the challenge of the membership. Flagrant or persistent violation of this section by any member shall be conduct unbecoming a union member.

Section 6.

(a) A quorum for Local Membership meetings shall consist of the President, or in his absence, the Vice President, and one other officer, plus eighteen (18) members in good standing.

(b) When no quorum is present at a Local Membership meeting, business requiring membership action shall be referred to the Executive Board for its approval or disapproval provided such action is not in violation of the UAW Constitution. Any Executive Board actions approved must be reported out to the membership at the next Local Membership meeting that has a quorum.

(c) A simple majority shall constitute a quorum for meetings of all committees. A majority of the members present will be required before action can be taken by any committee.

Section 7. The suggested Order of Business at Regular Local Meetings shall be as follows:
